

Dr. Bazil Ateleanu, MD, DEAA, FRCA

Date of Birth: 17th September 1967

Nationality: Dual (Romanian and British)

Place of work: University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff, UK

Position: Consultant Anaesthetist

Titles: MD – Medical Doctor 1991; DEAA – Diplomat of the European Academy of Anaesthesia 1997; FRCA – Fellow of the Royal College of Anaesthetists 1999

Clinical work: General Anaesthesia, with special interests in Liver (Lead Consultant), Eyes, Orthopaedics, Laparoscopic Surgery, ENT, Dental and ECT

Anaesthetic experience: started Anaesthesia Training in 1993; Specialist in Romania 1995; new training in the UK from 1994; Consultant in UHW since 2002

Teaching: Clinical Supervisor; regular teaching at undergraduate and postgraduate level at local and regional courses; WFSA Refresher Course Organiser 2009

Presentations: regular lecturer at international congresses (over 50)

Research: Member of the Editorial Committee of the Romanian Journal of Anaesthesia and Intensive Care; an important number of papers published

Audit: continuous departmental contribution

Management: regular interviewer at all levels for Cardiff Medical School and Welsh School of Anaesthesia; Lead Consultant in Liver Anaesthesia

Membership: ESA, GMC, RCoA, AAGBI, WFSA, WAS, SRATI and others

Charities direct clinical involvement: ORBIS; indirect: Mothers of Africa

World Federation of Societies of Anaesthesiologists WFSA: Education Committee

European Society of Anaesthesiology ESA:

Board Member

Past Chairman of Trainee Exchange Programme

Member of Part II Examination, New Examiners, Media, HVTAP, CEEA Committees

Inspector for Part I EDAIC/OLA

Examiner for Part II EDAIC

Ex-member of Nomination Committee, ESA Academy

Cardiff Organiser for ESA TEP Fellowship