

Dr. Gabriella Iohom, MD, DEAA, FCAI, PhD

Gabriella Iohom is a Cork-based Consultant Anaesthetist and Senior Lecturer with special interest and training in regional anaesthesia. A native of Transylvania, she graduated from the 'Iuliu Hatieganu' University of Medicine and Pharmacy Cluj-Napoca, underwent anesthesia specialist training in Hungary and Ireland, and regional anaesthesia fellowship training in France. A founding member of the Irish Society of Regional Anaesthesia, and more recently of the Special Interest Group on Education in Regional Anaesthesia of the American Society of Regional Anesthesia, Gabriella chaired the European Society of Anaesthesiologists' Focus Meeting on Regional Anaesthesia in 2017 as Immediate Past Chair of the Subcommittee on Regional Anaesthesia. She is currently co-director of the Cork Regional Anaesthesia Fellowship Programme, co-author of many peer-reviewed articles, co-editor of textbooks and reviewer for medical journals.